

DANCE BALLERINA, DANCE

She looks up and moves me so
Stumbling through the falling snow.
Making our way towards a summer romance
I say dance ballerina, dance
I say dance ballerina, dance
Dance ballerina, dance

Let our music take control
Rocking to each others little tune
Dance ballerina, give this romance a chance dance, ballerina, dance
Dance, ballerina, dance

It's only been a tug and pull.
I keep struggling to get her home
She makes it clear,
What she needs
To take away the shadows from her dreams

I'll feed her barren trees, my magic leaves
I'll lift her heart
You know that's where i'll be Waiting for that smile looking up at me waiting for that smile looking up at me

Winter's snow, it's here no more
Ballerina greets me at our door
We made our way to a summer romance
