

Freedom Never Let Her Stay

She never had enough she never found that crown.
She let her jesters play with all the gold she found.

chorus

Freedom followed her,
Freedom never let her stay;
Freedom never let her stay,
Freedom never let her stay

Through her window she'd watch the servants play
As the sun would set their laughter soon would fade.

Chorus

Their whisper's echoed through the empty halls.
Dawn light's silence would hold nothing at all.

She never told her tale, no ones ear could hear
Of the dragons breath that filled her eyes with tears

Chorus

A light in the night,
The darkness can't conceal.
